

Bequest Intention

Starting at your 55th Reunion, Williams will recognize, honor and celebrate your legacy gift

Alumni in their 55th Reunion year and beyond, plus spouses, families and friends age 75 and older are eligible.

WHAT:

Documented bequest intentions of any size can be from a will, trust, retirement plan, life insurance policy, or donor advised fund, etc. It can be a joint beguest, as long as both spouses are age eligible. Your bequest intention will make you a new member or reaffirm your membership in The Ephraim Williams Legacy Society.

The Ephraim Williams Legacy Society honors alumni, families, and friends who have demonstrated their commitment to Williams' future by establishing planned gifts or including the college as a charitable beneficiary of their estate plans.

WHY:

Through your estate plans you can carry on the legacy of philanthropy that began with our founder, Ephraim Williams in 1793. Your bequest intention supports future students and professors, continues the generosity that came before you, and serves as an example to other alumni. In addition, the college will have the opportunity to acknowledge, thank, and celebrate your future gift now.

How:

Complete a Bequest Intention Form (see reverse) and provide supporting documentation (e.g. excerpt from will, trust, or beneficiary designation form).
